On Appeal from the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit

JURISDICTIONAL STATEMENT

Venola Walton, plaintiff-appellant, appeals from the order of the United States Court of Appeals, Second Circuit, entered June 19, 1978. The order, judgment was affirmed on the opinion of the United States District Court, Southern District of New York (entered on January 23, 1978, pursuant to its memorandum decision). Thereafter, a petition for a rehearing was timely filed in the United States Court of Appeals, Second Circuit, which petition was denied and order entered thereon August 29, 1978, and I submit this jurisdictional statement to show that the Supreme Court of the United States has jurisdiction over this appeal, and that a substantial question is presented.

Opinions Below

The findings of the United States Government Small Business Administration, Washington, D. C. 20416, dated October 7, 1975. It was pursuant to a complaint, Venola Walton, filed with the Small Business Administrator, Mr. Thomas S. Kleppe, on August 11, 1975, and is reported in the appendix hereto at 1a-21a.

The opinion of the United States District Court, Southern District of New York, memorandum decision and order judgment, is reported in the appendix hereto at 22a-25a.

The opinion of the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, judgment affirmed on the opinion of the U. S. District Court, Southern District of New York, is reported in the appendix hereto at 26a.

The opinion of the United States Court of Appeals, Second Circuit, a petition for rehearing is reported in the appendix hereto at 27a.

JURISDICTION

This suit is a civil action by the plaintiff-appellant brought under the Federal Tort Claims Act, Title 4, Sec. 410-411, Federal Civil Rights Act, Chapter 7 (42 U.S.C. 1985); Supreme Court Practice, Sec. 2-5(1), to set aside an order, judgment of the United States District Court dismissing my case, entered January 23, 1978, and was upheld by the United States Court of Appeals, entered August 29, 1978. A notice of appeal was filed in that court on September 25, 1978. The jurisdiction of the Supreme Court to review this decision by direct appeal is conferred by Title 28 United States Code 1252.

Statutes Involved

This case involves the first part of the 14th Amendment of the Constitution of the United States, which provides as follows:

"All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the state wherein they reside. No state shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any state deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

This case also involves the Federal Civil Rights Act.

The Federal Tort Claims Act, Title 4, short title, F.T.C.A., page 843:

Federal Tort Claims Act.

Part 3—Suits on Tort Claims against the United States

"Sec. 410—(a) Subject to the provisions of this title, the United States District Court wherein the plaintiff is resident, or wherein the act or omission complained of occurred, including the United States district courts for the territories and possessions of the U.S., sitting with or without a jury, shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear, determine and render judgment on any claim against the United States, for money only occurring on and after January 1, 1945, on account of damage to or loss of property or on account of personal injury or death caused by the negligent or wrongful act or omission of any employee of the government while acting in the scope of his office, under circumstances where the U.S. if a private person would be liable to the claimant for such damages, . . . Subject to the provisions of this title, the United States shall be liable in respect of such claims as a private individual under like circumstances, except that the United States shall not be liable for interest prior to judgment."

Procedure

Sec. 411—In actions under this part, the forms of process, writs, pleadings and motions and the practice and procedure, shall be in accordance with the Rules promulgated by the Supreme Court pursuant to the Act of June 19, 1934 (48 Statute 1064) and the same provision for counterclaim and set-off for interest upon judgment.

The Federal Civil Rights Act (42 USC 1985) Chapter 7

The purpose of this statute was to give a cause of action to individuals deprived of their federal rights by conspiracies of either public officials or private persons.

95(3) — It gives to every citizen involved in litigation the right to be free from a conspiracy

"for the purpose of impeding, hindering, obstructing, or defeating in any manner the due course of justice in any State or Territory, with intent to deny to any citizen equal protection of the laws, or to injure him or his property, for lawful enforcing or attempting to enforce, . . . of any persons, or class of persons, to the equal protection of the laws."

(9815-97)(3) "Equality," — the right to be free from a denial of equal protection in employment and business opportunities is protectable under this subsection. To illustrate: "An action was held to lie when city officials intentionally discriminated against a Negro liquor license holder and revoked his license."

The Circuit Court of Appeals has also held that an architect stated a cause of action under this subsection when he alleged a conspiracy of city officials subjecting him to unlawful discrimination in regularly and deliberately denying his application.

The Court of Appeals ruled there was no cause of action when the defendant in a civil suit had allegedly misappropriated exhibits, introduced perjured testimony and made untrue and slanderous statements about the plaintiff.

Question Presented

Whether the Small Business Administration intentionally discriminated against me, denied me an economic opportunity loan, engaged in a conspiracy and fraud, closed my business, prevented me from economic growth, and whether, where this was a Black owned business, and had met all of the Small Business Administration requirements and standards, was purposely denied all of the opportunities and advantages and protection provided for, by, the laws, to improve and expand my business. And where this case involves important Federal and Constitutional questions, and genuine issues of material fact, was subject to summary dismissal, and whether the District Court lack subject matter jurisdiction over this claim, and whether the Administrator exercised his authority in the interest of my business after having knowledge of agency actions.

Statement of the Questions

Plaintiff is appealing this case on the original complaint and record filed in the District Court on July 20, 1976. See Plaintiff's affidavit in opposition to defendant's motion to dismiss her case filed June 15, 1977 and plaintiff's brief and joint appendix filed in the United States Court of Appeals on April 21, 1978 and Petition for Rehearing filed June 30, 1978, which will show that Plaintiff presented substantial argument and evidence to sustain her position. The District Court's Memorandum Decision has not presented one piece of evidence to sustain its decision.

Plaintiff-appellant, a Black woman who had an established dress factory in the garment district at 347 West 39th Street, employing 20 people, applied for an Economic Opportunity loan for $25,000.00. The Small Business Administration granted me a $6,000.00 loan in November, 1964. Business showed growth and a need for expansion and improvement in my business operation. In June, 1965 I applied for an Economic Opportunity Loan.

I spoke to Mr. Gordon, an S.B.A. officer, who was assigned to visit my shop and aid me with problems, who advised that I have my jobber write a letter to the S.B.A. to assure them that I would have sufficient income to repay the loan. The letter was sent, the application was completed. I am waiting for them to make the loan.

After waiting so long I called the SBA's office to check, and speed them up. Nothing had been done. My application was just lying there. They told me I had to get another contract. I questioned them, "Why should I get another contract when I have a jobber who has committed himself to the Small Business Administration to supply me with continuous work, to the capacity of my shop."

He said, "Well you will have to get another jobber." I then secured another contract from Anne Fogarty at 550 7th Avenue. App. 29a-30a.

When they were ready to send the work into my shop I was behind in my rent at that point. The Small Business Administration said we can't let you take the work, because the landlord will lock you out, and the company would not be able to get the work to fill their orders. The SBA had me get a letter from my landlord to grant me time for them to process my application and for me to work. My landlord granted me generous time, but the SBA still would not let the work come into my shop. Landlord's letter App. at 31a.

The Internal Revenue Service called and told me they were coming to put a seal on the door that same day, which they did.

I was unaware that the Small Business Administration was not acting in good faith up to this point. When they had demanded that I get a new contract and when the work was ready, they would not let me take the work, and when my landlord granted me over two months for me to work, and for them to process the loan, and then they wouldn't let the work come into my shop, and neither did they process the loan.

Instead, the Internal Revenue Service was called to put a seal on my door.

Then I knew it was the Small Business Administration that caused all of my so-called problems, they created them and aggravated them. They invaded the privacy of my business under false pretense as to aid me with problems while all the time they were engaged in a conspiracy and fraud to close my business. The SBA granted me the token loan of $6,000.00 and just three months later the SBA had placed false information in my file — a delinquent notice to set up my SBA file to make sure I wouldn't get any financial assistance from them or any other source. 32a.

However, I didn't know that false document and others were in my file until I filed a complaint with the SBA, Administrator Mr. Kleppe in Washington, D.C., Department of Discrimination. They investigated, and sent me their findings. I informed them that their findings had many false statements and had omitted many facts that needed to be brought out for justice to be done and I requested a hearing or appointment to present the same.

The SBA requested that I send them what facts I alleged as false and what proof I had. Several letters were transmitted between us. They were requesting that I send, and I was requesting an appointment for a hearing to submit my proof in person.

I refused to send my proof until I was allowed to review my file in the SBA's New York office. I reviewed certain documents in my file and was given copies of them. Then, I prepared the requested information for the SBA in Washington, and sent it to them.

Thereafter, they closed my case and would not reopen it. I had no other recourse, but to file a suit in the Federal District Court.

My rights were abused in the District Court. I demanded a trial by jury as provided for under Rule 38. My request was completely ignored. The Court put me through undue stress and strain, trying to present my case on paper and put me to a disadvantage, a pro se having to try and deal with a maximum of laws and statutes under which this case was being conducted.

The Court allowed the illegal filing of motions and the issuing of orders and unlawfully brought my case under the statute of limitations and dismissed it.

I appealed to the United States Court of Appeals, and they upheld the District Court's decision.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

The Small Business Administration intentionally discriminated against me, engaged in conspiracy and fraud to prevent a black woman from operating a successful business, participating in the economic growth of our country. The defendant's actions raise questions for review.

1. Why did the Small Business Administration demand that I get another jobber, when I had a jobber supplying me with work to the capacity of my shop?

2. Why did they hold my application for six months and not process the loan?

3. Why, after demanding that I get another jobber, when the work was ready to come into my shop, the Small Business Administration would not let the work come into my shop?

4. Why, when my landlord wrote the SBA a letter, granting me generous time, for me to take the work in, and for the SBA to process the loan, they still did not allow the work to come into my shop? Nor process the loan.

5. There had not been any delinquents in the payments of my loan notes to SBA; why did the defendants, Small Business Administration, place a delinquent notice in my SBA file just three months after they had granted me the $6,000. loan?

6. And why did that notice remain in my SBA file for 10 years?

7. And, why was it used by the Administrative office, given as a reason why my 1965 loan had been denied?

This action involves important Constitutional and public questions and requires the jurisdiction of this Court.

Whether the District Court lacked subject matter jurisdiction over claims.

Whether the Small Business Administration should have been granted leave to amend its answer and counterclaim to assert the statute of limitations as an affirmative defense, seven months after the first filing and shortly after moving to dismiss, and whether this case was subject to summary dismissal.

Whether the administrative office exercised its authoritative powers in the interest of my business, and whether I was given equal protection and opportunity as provided under the Economic Opportunity Act of 1964. The Small Business Administration purposely denied me the opportunities and advantages that were available for minority, or just small businesses, during that period.

THE QUESTIONS ARE SUBSTANTIAL

The questions are so substantial because the plaintiff-appellant had an established business, employing 20 people. I had collateral, machines, equipment, supplies, etc. and "I was a black" woman, a minority, who was denied an economic opportunity loan to expand and improve my business in 1965. In spite of the 1964

Economic Opportunity Act, that had as one of its primary goals the preservation of free competitive enterprises in order to strengthen the nation's economy, the Small Business Administration held my application for a loan 6 months, and never processed it. And during the course of that time, the SBA tortiously interfered with my business; they demanded I get a new contract in 1965, and after obtaining the contract, they would not allow the work to come into my shop. 29a-30a.

Their interference had caused me not to be able to meet my obligations; I owed rent. However, my landlord granted me generous time for the Small Business Administration to process the loan and for me to take the work in. But the SBA still would not allow the work to come into my shop. 29a-30a

The question is so substantial because my federal and Constitutional rights have been violated. I was denied the right to operate my business; I was denied the right to equal opportunities and protection provided for by the laws.

The 14th Amendment to the Constitution of the United States provides for these rights and privileges, and they shall not be abridged.

The question is substantial because I am a productive citizen. I was producing, I was contributing to the economic growth of our country. I was giving jobs to people and had a job for myself.

I was unlawfully cut off, denied the right to participate in our free enterprise system, because my skin is black.

I filed a complaint with the Small Business Administrator, Mr. Thomas S. Kleppe on August 11, 1975. They investigated, and sent me their findings.

I informed them that their findings had many false statements and had omitted many facts that needed to be brought out for justice to be done. They, then, requested that I send them what facts I alleged as false and what proof I had of such. I refused to send them my proof. I requested a hearing to present it in person. The Administrator's office ignored my request, after several letters were transmitted between us.

I then went to the Civil Liberty Union. I told them what had transpired theretofore, and told them I would not send them any proof unless I am able to go into the Small Business Administration office and review my file. It was through their office that an appointment was made for me to review my file.

I went into the SBA's office and reviewed that information and was given copies of it. Washington's SBA office closed my case after an appointment was made for me to review my file. I prepared the information the SBA in Washington had requested and mailed it to them and requested that they reopen my case.

They refused to reopen my case, stating that they found no wrongdoings by the SBA in New York. The question is substantial because this was the information the SBA in Washington had sent me in their findings, and gave as the reason my loan was denied in 1965. Complaint, and letters are printed herein as Appendix 1, pages 1a-21a (SBA Washington's findings).

I had no other recourse but to file suit in the Federal District Court.

The questions are so substantial because when I filed this case in the District Court, I demanded a trial by jury as provided for in Title 28 U.S.C.A. Rule 38. The court denied my request, and further, granted the defendant's motion for leave to amend its answer and counterclaim to assert the Statute of Limitations as an affirmative defense, seven months after his first answer.

Rule 56 holds in every instance that the record must be factually adequate, that there is no genuine issues of material fact, for the granting of summary judgment. Rule 56-(58)—. The Statute—a defending party may move for summary judgment on the basis of the statute of limitations. There is authority that if the defendant first files an answer and fails to plead the statute of limitations, and then later moves for summary judgment on the basis of limitation, his motion must be denied on the theory that he has waived the defense and cannot therefore avail himself of it unless relieved by appropriate actions.

Summary judgment should have been denied. Rule 56, page 738, states while a defendant would be entitled to summary judgment on the basis of one good affirmative defense that does not involve a triable issue of fact, summary judgment must be denied where there is a triable issue of fact in connection with each affirmative defense upon which the defendant's motion is predicated.

The defendant-appellee showed prejudice and contempt when he states: "In this case, Plaintiff, Venola Walton, a black woman, charges that the Small Business Administration, has denied her the opportunity to make a living since 1965 and seeks $500,000 in compensatory damages for each year of this alleged deprivation, or approximately $6 million."

The plaintiff, Venola Walton, takes no pleasure in having to sue the Small Business Administration for its injustice to me and its discriminatory practices that led to this action.

I would much rather have been respected and treated as a full citizen of these United States and given the opportunity to work for it, to have been allowed to remain a part of our free enterprise system; to participate in the strength of our country's economy. The Small Business Administration denied me these opportunities, when they intentionally and wrongfully discriminated against me, and used fraud to preclude my business.

15 U.S.C. 701-37 the statute precluding review generally.

Judicial review will not be cut off unless clear and convincing evidence discloses that Congress has both considered and prohibited judicial review of agency action in question.

A statute must demonstrate clear and convincing evidence of an intent to preclude review before courts will cut off an aggrieved party's right to be heard. Withdrawal statutes come into play when there has been a clear departure from statutory authority, and expose the offending agency to review of administrative action otherwise made reviewable by statute.

The defendant was advised to use several laws, rules, and statutes to prevent my case from being heard, and, if heard, the court would be precluded from granting injunctive relief. The SBA is engaged in a conspiracy to wrongfully and unjustly dismiss my case.

It is my federal and constitutional right to a trial by jury. I have a right to be heard.

CONCLUSION

Plaintiff should be awarded the damages requested in her complaint, in that she was discriminated against and suffered severe, business economic and social injuries and injustices were imposed upon her as a black woman, and false information was placed in her SBA file preventing her from enjoying the full economic benefits to which the law provides.

Also, defendant was wrongfully allowed to amend his answer to assert the Statute of Limitations, barring any part of plaintiff's claim in 1965 on.

Therefore, plaintiff is asking this Court to order the Small Business Administration to pay her $500,000 for each year she has been:

1. Denied the opportunity to earn a living;
2. Denied the opportunity to participate in our economic struggle, by making jobs for others;
3. Denied the opportunity to participate in our free enterprise system;
4. To pay for the obstruction of my livelihood.

Respectfully submitted,

Venola Walton,

APPENDIX 1COMPLAINT FILED WITH SBA IN WASHINGTON AND SBA FINDINGS

Mr. Thomas S. Kleppe
Administrator
Small Business Administration
1441 L Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20416

Dear Mr. Kleppe,

I wish to file a complaint against one of your agencies, the Small Business Administration. I was discriminated against, and denied an Economic Opportunity Loan, which I thoroughly qualified for.

The S.B.A. conspired to put me out of business and keep me out of business because: 1—I am black, 2—I am a female, 3—The type of business.

I originally applied for this loan in June, 1965. At that time I had a going business and was employing 17 persons, and had a job for myself.

I had been granted a token loan for $6,000.00 in November, 1964, and my payments were kept up to date. Mr. Gordon, an S.B.A. officer, was assigned to visit my shop, and aid me with problems. When I applied for the loan, he requested that I have my jobber write a letter to assure the S.B.A. I would have sufficient income to repay the loan. That latter is attached for your viewing.

I enquired about the loan after waiting so long. My application was just lying there. I was then told to get another contract. I secured a contract from Anne Fogarty, 550 Seventh Avenue. When they were read to send the work into my shop, the S.B.A. wouldn't let me take the work.

I was behind in my rent at that point. The S.B.A. said, we can't let you take the work, because the landlord will lock you out, and the Company wouldn't be able to get the work to fill their orders. Then I had my landlord write to the S.B.A., granting me time before they take any action, but they still did not let the work come into the shop. The Internal Revenue called and told me they were coming to put a seal on the door that same day, which they did. Attached is a letter from the landlord, and the contract from Anne Fogarty.

Many efforts have been made in-between 1965 and 1975, to obtain a loan to reopen my business. I have tried to get a loan, or (that loan) as recent as April 8th, 1975, but with no success. They returned my application and supporting documents. I am enclosing my letter dated April 8th, 1975, which accompanied my application to them, also their letter of denial dated 6/2/75.

I have never tried to forfeit my loan obligations. It has always been acknowledged by me first. I am enclosing a copy of a letter I mailed to five Government heads, including the President, (Johnson at that time), and Folley of S.B.A., in Washington, D.C.

In that letter of December 1, 1965, I was reaching out for help. I didn't feel that it was necessary to cry out discrimination, or that I was being denied the opportunity to earn a living, after that law went into effect to help minorities in business in 1964. I felt sure that out of the five letters I mailed, at least one of them would have interceeded, and had the seal removed from the door, and look into my problem. Instead, nothing was done to help.

I hope I have given enough facts, and outlined what happened properly, so as to give a clear picture of the total complaint.

Very truly yours,

Venola Walton

Miss Venola Walton
539 West 148th Street, Apt. 6
New York, New York 10031

Dear Miss Walton:

This is in reply to your letter of August 11, 1975, alleging sexual and racial discrimination against you by the Small Business Administration (SBA).

We have reviewed the loan files from our New York District Office regarding Emy Grant Fashions, 479 West 150th Street, New York, New York. The following facts were found:

A direct loan in the amount of $6,000 was authorized on October 30, 1964, by SBA to Emy Grant Fashions per your application dated September 11, 1964. (RSL-134,860-NY(P)). On March 1, 1965, the New York District Office requested by letter that you provide them with an annual periodic financial statement, in accordance with the provisions of the loan agreement. Mr. Melvin Walker, at that time, the Acting Supervisory Loan Specialist, notified you on May 13, 1965, that you were in violation of your loan agreement because you had not sent his office the requested annual financial statements. On May 24, 1965, you responded by sending the financial statement for Emy Grant Fashions for the 6 months ended December 31, 1964. This financial statement showed a loss for that 6 month period totaling $1,489.07. Your letter dated May 24, 1965, which accompanied your annual financial statement revealed to SBA for the first time that you had changed the name of your company to Emily Grant Fashions, Inc., Manufacturers of Dresses. Also, it revealed that you had without prior notice to SBA, transferred all of the assets and liabilities of Emy Grant Fashions to Emily Grant Fashions, Inc., the stock of which was issued to you.

The loan files indicate that SBA sent you your first delinquent notice on April 2, 1965. At that time, you were 1 month in arrears. A June 29, 1965, Report on Field Visit Made (Field visit of 6-16-65) written by Loan Specialist, Stephen Gordon, indicates that after an examination of your company's bank books there appeared to be a shortage of funds. At that time, your loan was shown as current. On that same occasion, Mr. Gordon discussed with you the SCORE Program and you signed SBA Form 641, requesting counseling from SCORE. A Volunteer Advisor Program Evaluation Report about Emy Grant Fashions written by SCORE Counselor, Mr. Morris Shenker, indicated that based on his observations of your business you were in difficulty and that union manufacturers had cancelled contracts with you because your shop was nonunion.

A copy of your December 1, 1965, letter to Mr. Eugene P. Foley, then the Administrator of the Small Business Administration, is included as part of the loan file. You stated in paragraph four of that letter, and I quote "I succeeded in getting a jobber who was able to supply me with a steady flow of work. I worked for them a few months successfully. Then the union started harassing the shop. It was a constant thing, exerting more pressure from time to time, until the work was stopped completely. I called on various government departments and organizations for help, but they were unable to do anything to help my situation. Consequently, I became delinquent in my taxes."

Miss Walton, your own words written to SBA seem to refute your allegation that SBA conspired to put you out of business.

A memorandum reporting delinquent loans, dated February 21, 1966, (for the monthly period ended February 25, 1966) to Acting Regional Director, Mr. Andrew J. Semon from Mr. Stephen Gordon, Loan Specialist showed your loan to be delinquent by $198.00 (two installments). In the comments section of this report Mr. Gordon stated that your business had been seized by the Internal Revenue Service on December 14, 1965, for nonpayment of taxes. He informed Mr. Semon that your loan would be transferred to liquidation.

On March 17, 1966, a second memorandum reporting delinquent loans (for the monthly period ending 2-25-66) to the Acting Regional Director showed your loan to be further delinquent five installments, in the amount of $495.00.

A May 12, 1966, report to the Regional Director for Mr. Stephen Gordon, Loan Specialist shows your business was inactive and your loan delinquent 6 monthly installments in the amount of $99.00 each, for a total of $594.00 as of April 13, 1966. The report indicates that several attempts were made to contact you by phone in efforts to effect collection. Mr. Gordon states that because of additional duties he was unable to make personal visits to effect collection. In view of the foregoing, Mr. Gordon recommended the following:

1. That the Regional Director authorize acceleration of maturity of your note.
2. That the Regional Director make written demand upon you for payment of your loan. In the event that you did not comply with the demand for payment, the Regional Counsel was to refer your loan to the United States Attorney for a deficiency judgment.

On June 7, 1966, Acting Regional Director, Raymond B. Curran sent to you (by certified mail, return receipt requested) a letter informing you of your default on your loan. He informed you of your failure to pay certain installments of principal and interest when they became due and payable, and of their intent to accelerate the maturity of the note. Finally, Mr. Curran advised you that unless your note was paid including the balance of principal and interest accrued to date of payment, no later than June 13, 1966, SBA would "proceed to take such action as is available to us for the purpose of enforcing payment of this loan without further notice to you."

Miss Walton, your loan was charged off, subject to semi-annual review on July 27, 1966. The principal balance was $5,210.42. The accrued interest was $34.23, a total of 5,244.65.

On November 5, 1968, Mr. Irving Warnasch, Program Coordinator Liquidation and Disposal, sent a letter to you (certified mail return receipt requested) demanding payment of the balance due on your loan by November 20, 1968, unless SBA proceed against you. No response to this letter by you is included in the loan files.

A final memo to the files dated October 15, 1969, states that you visited the New York District Office and were interviewed by the Liquidation and Disposal Officer, Mr. Edward J. Ryan.

At your insistence (the report states) you were given a written statement signed by Mr. Ryan to the effect that your loan had been Charged-off, Closed, on November 6, 1968, with an outstanding balance of $5,244.65.

The law requires reasonable assurance that an SBA loan can be repaid out of the proceeds of the business. The history of your former dealings with SBA do not appear to support such repayment ability.

Based on the above facts, and after reviewing the circumstances involved with your loan, we find no evidence of discriminatory treatment. It appears that the New York District Office personnel made every effort to be of assistance to you.

Sincerely,

Dear Ms. Walton:

This is in reply to your letter dated October 15, 1975, to former Administrator Thomas S. Kleppe reiterating that you were discriminated against by the New York District Office of the Small Business Administration.

Mr. Robert Maxwell sent you a letter on October 10, 1975, which contained his preliminary findings. You allege that he omitted many important facts. We reiterate what he asked you for before, to provide us with any specific facts regarding the alleged acts of discrimination by SBA or SBA employees including who, where, when, how, why and what specific acts you feel are important which constitute discrimination. SBA has no authority over other government agencies or non-public organizations or individuals. You also indicate in your most recent letter that many of Mr. Maxwell's preliminary findings are not true. Please indicate which statements you believe not to be true and what facts you have which would tend to refute them.

You can be assured that if you provide us with additional specifics, we will conduct an in-depth investigation of your complaint. We appreciate your bringing these allegations to our attention. We would deeply appreciate your cooperation in finding out what the facts actually are and providing us with specific information previously requested and which we are again requesting from you.

Thank you for your attention.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Feldman,

This is in reply to your letter dated October 30, 1975, of which was a reply to a letter I wrote to Mr. Kleppe regarding a complaint I filed against the Small Business Administration the findings thereof.

It is true that Mr. Maxwell omitted many important facts, and made many false statements in his report. I had no correspondence with Mr. Maxwell until I received his report dated October 7th, 1975. I did receive a telephone call on September 30th, 1975. In my letter to Mr. Kleppe, dated October 15th, 1975, I requested a hearing that all the facts may be presented. Mr. Maxwell stated in his report that he had received my files from the New York Office, and these things were found in my file.

In my complaint I attached certain documents, and the dates thereon will verify my complaint against the S.B.A. I was already in business and employing 17 persons, and had a job for myself at the time I applied for the loan.

I would appreciate a hearing on this matter, or an appointment to present proof to you, or to the person in charge of Mr. Kleppe's office.

Thanking you for your immediate attention to this matter.

Very truly yours,

Venola Walton

Dear Ms. Walton:

This is in reply to your letter dated November 11, 1975, to Mr. J. Arnold Feldman, Chief, Compliance Division, Office of Equal Employment Opportunity and Compliance, reiterating that our investigation of your complaint contained many false statements and omitted many important facts.

You have again failed to supply us with any additional information which would be more illuminating. We reiterate what we asked you for before, to provide us with any specific facts regarding the alleged acts of discrimination by the Small Business Administration or its employees including who, where, when, how, why and what specific acts you feel are important which constitute discrimination.

Again, we ask you to please indicate which statements, in the investigation report you believe not to be true and what facts you have which would tend to refute them.

In regards to your statement concerning the documents you mailed to us, attached to your letter of complaint as verification of your being discriminated against by SBA, none of them serve to substantiate your allegations.

You can be assured that if you provide us with additional specifics, we will conduct an in-depth investigation of your complaint. We appreciate your bringing these allegations to our attention. We would deeply appreciate your cooperation in finding out what the facts actually are and providing us with specific information previously requested and which we are again requesting from you.

Thank you for your attention.

Dear Mr. Maxwell:

I am writing in reference to your letter dated November 19, 1975. You mailed me a report of your findings on October 7, 1975. I am sure your report was based on my complaint, attached documents and my files from your New York office. With that being true, and if the information in my files was correct, those statements could not or would not have been made. I have in my last two letters to your office requested a hearing so that the facts could be presented. My requests have been ignored. Therefore, I have been advised to seek legal counsel who will present the facts at the proper time.

I had hoped your office would have been more helpful in this matter.

Dear Mr. Maxwell:

I am writing in reference to your letter dated the 16th day of December, 1975, wherein you stated that you had closed my case because I did not provide you with specific information which might give you reason to conduct an in-depth investigation into the circumstances of my complaint.

I would like to call your attention to my letters to your office dated the 15th day of October, 1975 and the 11th day of November, 1975, in which I requested an appointment, to present my proof to you in person. I also informed you that your report contained many false statements which you said were based on information from my file. I felt that I should have seen that information before presenting proof of the same.

Through the aid of the New York Civil Liberties Union, who contacted your office, it was made possible for me to obtain an appointment for January 6, 1976, with Mr. Mauch, who gave me copies of certain letters and papers that I requested from my file.

Referring to Mr. Melvin Walker's letter, in which he stated that I was in violation of my loan agreement because I had not sent the requested financial statement. I am enclosing a copy of a letter, No. RSL-134,680-NY-P, from your district office, dated the 29th day of December, 1964, in which information was given regarding the payment of my loan.

The letter Mr. Gordon requested from my jobber, of which a copy was attached to my complaint and mailed to your office on August 11, 1975. This letter stated very clearly that I was in need of finances to improve my present operation, to be able to do more and better business. I realized the need to improve my business and certainly, if my business had been financially sound, I would have had no need for a loan.

I filed for a certificate of incorporation and received the incorporation kit but did not receive the approved certificate. Attached herein is a copy of a letter which I mailed to the Secretary of State, Mr. John P. Lomenzo, inquiring into same. I am also attaching a copy of his reply. The corporation was never formed. All of my business transactions were done under the name of Emry Grant Fashions. I have in my possession the incorporation kit, which may be examined at any time you desire.

The attached cancelled checks and letters serve as proof that I had not transferred any assets or liabilities, nor did I do business under that name.

I was not delinquent in my payments to the Small Business Administration, for one month, when a notice supposedly was sent to me on April 2, 1965. Attached hereto are cancelled checks reflecting payment for February, March, April and May.

At the time I was given the information from my files on January 6, 1976. I requested a copy of the Small Business Administration form No. 641, which I supposedly had signed, requesting counseling from Score. I was told by Mr. Mauch, that said form was not in my file. Mr. Shenker from Score reported on my business that I was in difficulty and that Union Manufacturers had cancelled contracts with me because my shop was non-union. I am enclosing copies of my report to the Health, Welfare and Severence Fund, Joint Board, Dress and Waistmakers Union as proof of being Unionized.

I have furnished you with the necessary information which will enable you to re-open my case and proceed with the investigation of my complaint; and will allow you to make a just judgment.

It is my sincere hope that you will realize the wrong that has been done to me and will endeavor to rectify same.

Thanking you in advance for your anticipated cooperation and prompt attention in this matter, I remain,

Very truly yours,

Dear Ms. Walton:

We have reviewed the documents that you sent to us in your letter of January 20, 1976. Unfortunately, we fail to see how any of them lend further substantiation to your allegations of discrimination against you by the New York District Office of the Small Business Administration.

We ask that you please inform us as to how each of the documents specifically justify our launching an investigation of the New York Office on the grounds of discrimination.

We await your earnest reply.

MEMORANDUM DECISION OF DISTRICT COURT

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

U.S. Civ. 3208 (JMC)

VENOLA WALTON,

Plaintiff,

-against-

THE SMALL BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION,

Defendant.

CANNELLA, D.J.:

Motion for summary judgment, Fed. R. Civ. P. 56(b), is granted as to the first claim in the complaint. Motion to dismiss for lack of subject matter jurisdiction, Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(1), is granted as to the second claim. The complaint is dismissed.

Plaintiff Venola Walton, a black woman, brought this suit against the Small Business Administration ("SBA") claiming that the agency's wrongful refusal to loan her money in 1965 and 1975 caused the failure of her dressmaking business.¹ Specifically, the complaint alleges

1. In November 1964 plaintiff was granted an SBA loan in the amount of $6,000. In November 1965 plaintiff defaulted in her loan payments, and the Internal Revenue Service closed plaintiff's business for non-payment of federal taxes. Plaintiff contests the adequacy of the $6,000 SBA loan and the agency's failure to lend her additional monies when she applied for them.

that such loans were denied plaintiff on the basis of her sex and race and that the defendant placed false documents in her SBA file. Defendant moves to dismiss the complaint for lack of subject matter jurisdiction and, alternatively, for summary judgment. As to the first claim, the Court finds, on the basis of the affidavits and supporting papers, that there are no material facts in issue and that defendant is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. As to the second allegation, the Court finds it is jurisdictionally defective because plaintiff failed to file an administrative claim. 28 U.S.C. §2675(a). The Court further finds that all claims arising from plaintiff's 1965 loan application are time-barred. 28 U.S.C. §2401(b).

Plaintiff's discrimination claim consists merely of the fact that she is a black woman and that, on two occasions, the SBA denied her a loan. Defendant's moving papers set out the circumstances under which these loan applications were denied, and it appears to the Court that the agency's decisions were substantially supported. See 5 U.S.C. §706. In response to the Government's papers, plaintiff has not advanced even one fact suggestive of discrimination. In such a case, the awarding of summary judgment is appropriate. E.g., Donnelly v. Guion, 467 F.2d 290, 293 (2d Cir. 1972); Appelgate v. Top Assocs., Inc., 425 F. 2d 92, 96 (2d Cir. 1970); see Fed. R. Civ. P. 56(e).

Plaintiff's second claim, that the SBA placed false and damaging documents in her file, must be dismissed for lack of subject matter jurisdiction due to plaintiff's failure to file an administrative claim. Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(1); 28 U.S.C. §2675(a). Additionally, insofar as the claim is one for defamation, the doctrine of sovereign immunity would act as a bar to suit, 28 U.S.C. §2680 (h), and the Court finds the claim to be plainly frivolous.

Plaintiff, like so many other persons, tried to make a go of her own business, and failed. For a variety of reasons, none of which involved plaintiff's race or sex, the SBA decided in its discretion that its funds should not be used to help fund her enterprise. In the absence of a showing that the SBA's decision rested on improper criteria, its decision cannot be disturbed.

For the above reasons, defendant's motions are granted and the complaint is dismissed.

The foregoing constitute the findings of fact and conclusions of law of the Court pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 52(a).

SO ORDERED.

APPENDIX 11

SUIT FILED BY PLAINTIFF ON JULY 20, 1976 IN UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

(SAME TITLE)

1. I am filing in this Court because I am suing a Federal Agency, and this is a Federal Court.
2. I wish to sue the Small Business Administration, 26 Federal Plaza, New York, 10007.
3. My name is Venola Walton, 539 West 148th Street, apt. 6, New York, N.Y., 10031.
4. I am charging the Small Business Administration with:
 1. Discrimination; Denying me an Economic Opportunity Loan.

In June, 1964, I opened a dress factory under the name of Emigrant Fashions at 347 West 39th Street, New York City. I employed 17 persons and had a job for myself. In November, 1964, I was granted a $6,000.00 loan from the Small Business Administration. Mr. Gordon, an S.B.A. Officer was assigned to visit my shop and aid me with problems. In June, 1965, I applied for an Economic Opportunity Loan. Mr. Gordon requested that I have my jobber write the Small Business Administration a letter to assure them that I would have sufficient income to repay the loan. I am enclosing a copy of that letter. I had complied with all of their requests, and met all requirements for the loan. My application was left lying there.

When I called about the application, I was told I had to get another contract. I secured another contract from Anne Fogarty, 550-7th Avenue, New York City, in October, 1965. When they were ready to send the work into my shop, the Small Business Administration would not let me take the work. They said, the landlord will lock you out, and the Company would not be able to get the work to fill their orders. Then the Small Business Administration requested that I get a letter from my landlord, granting me time in order to take the work in, and for them to process my application. I am enclosing the contract from Anne Fogarty, and the letter from my landlord. I was then locked out by the Internal Revenue.

Much has transpired between 1975 in my effort to secure a loan. I am enclosing a letter dated April 8th, 1975 which accompanied my last application to the Small Business Administration. Also enclosed is their letter of denial, dated June 2nd, 1975.

2. I further charge the Small Business Administration with placing false information in my files, and for giving out false information which would discredit me.

On August 11th, 1975, I filed a complaint with Mr. Thomas S. Kleppe, Administrator, Small Business Administration, 1441 L Street, N.W., Washington, D.C., 20416. On October 10th, 1975, I received a report on their findings from Mr. Robert L. Maxwell. I informed them that their report contained many false statements, and requested a hearing so that all the facts could be presented. My request was ignored. It was made possible for me to go into the S.B.A. office and review certain documents from my file. The information Mr. Maxwell said he had based his findings on, was found in my file, at the S.B.A. office in New York City. I was given copies of that information. I mailed Mr. Maxwell documents of my proof that the information he had used in his findings was false. My case was closed, and they would not reopen it.

I am enclosing a copy of his findings, a copy of the documents from my file, copies of documents of my proof that false information was in my files.

5. I am asking the Court to order the Small Business Administration to pay me $500,000.00 for each year I have been:

1. Denied the opportunity to earn a living
2. Denied the opportunity to participate in our economic struggle, by making jobs for others
3. Denied the opportunity to participate in our free enterprise system
4. To pay for the obstruction of my livelihood.

APPENDIX 12

PLAINTIFF'S ONE YEAR PROJECTION OF INCOME AND EXPENSES

My Resume, Reference letters, projections, etc., and the Small Business Administration's personal knowledge of my abilities and business performance that verify and tell of my experience and qualifications. The Defendant, SBA, through the fraudulent acts closed my business and engaged in a conspiracy to keep it closed.

Please take notice of my one year projections of income and expense: 1-2 and 3 (a revised one) and compare with the defendant's reasons for denying my loan application. In my one year projection, I have a Break Down, and I am sure if the defendants had bothered to read the entire projection, seeing an estimated sales for the year of $315,000.00, it would not have struck him as being outlandish.

I shall go through the figures in projection number 1: I am working with a production figure of 210 dresses per week, priced at $31.25 per dress.

Estimated Sales for the week	$6,562.50
Estimated Sales for the Month	26,250.00
Estimated Sales for the year	315,000.00

Note: In order to produce these dresses, we must have material, lining, trimming, notions, so we have the cost of goods sold, $12.75 per dress, producing 210 dresses per week, 10,060 dresses per year at a total cost of $128,510.00

Estimated Sales for the year	315,000.00
Minus— Cost of goods sold	128,510.00
Leaves a gross profit of	186,490.00

Still to produce these same dresses we have an operating expense, such as payroll, rent, telephone, electricity, etc.

Approximately	$127,703.20
Gross Profit	186,490.00
Operating expense	127,703.20
Income	58,786.80
Estimated Income Tax 22%	12,933.10
Leaving an estimated Net Profit of	45,853.70

The defendant must know when you say net profit, that means that all expenses has been paid, including the loan note and interest and owner's salary.

Projection #3, a revised one, at their request. And I have had many such changes to go through in complying with their demands But, even in the $28,000.00 loan application in which the defendant made reference to the $656.00 net profit for the year was not enough to pay an S.B.A. loan note and interest, salaries and all expenses had been included in: Gross profits and operating expenses. The $656.00 was indeed profit.

I suddenly realized that the S.B.A.'s intentions were to force me into poverty, a hopeless state of existence. The harder I tried, the more they oppressed. I had to do something. For the defendants, I could never know enough or qualify enough to obtain a loan from the defendants, the Small Business Administration in their prejudices and race hatred has spoken out loudly, and demonstrated greatly against me.

In the Government's Memorandum of Laws "arguments," the defendant
